Supervision according to the data protection regulation

The Swedish Privacy Protection Agency (IMY) has decided to audit you personal data processing and has initiated a supervisory case. You therefore need to answer our questions.

Why is the Swedish Privacy Protection Authority reviewing?

your business?

IMY has received complaints in which it is stated that you (Kungälv municipality) are monitoring cameras places to which the public has access without having applied for and received permission from IMY.

Our questions

IMY wants you to answer the following questions:

Is it true that the municipality of Kungälv has camera surveillance in places where the public go have access?

☐ If yes:

How come you didn't apply for permission from IMY? Develop how you reasoned.

Which places do you monitor with cameras?

Is what the complaint alleges true - that any personal data that is recorded in conjunction with the camera surveillance is anonymized? In such cases, describe which technology you use and how the anonymization works.

Is Kungälv municipality to be considered the personal data controller for the camera surveillance?

Your answers

Reply in writing to IMY no later than November 3, 2021.

Provided that the response does not contain any privacy-sensitive personal data or information that may be covered by confidentiality, you can e-mail it to imy@imy.se and refer to our diary number DI-2021-8567.

If, in addition to the answers to our questions, you would like to refer to further information or documents so indicate this and what you want to show with them but do not submit documents which goes beyond the stated purpose of supervision.

Do you have to answer the Swedish Privacy Authority?

Yes, IMY is a supervisory authority according to the data protection regulation, GDPR¹. This means that we may request that you provide all information that we need to be able to fulfill our information such as supervisory authority.²

What happens next?

When IMY has finished the review, you will receive a decision. There you will get notification of any deficiencies in your data protection and whether you must take any corrective measures actions. IMY can, for example, impose administrative penalty fees according to the data protection regulation.³

If you have questions, contact Jeanette Bladh Gustafson on tel. 08-657 61 32.
