EIGHTH: On June 28, 2022, the Director of the AEPD adopted a project decision to initiate disciplinary proceedings. Following the established process in article 60 of the GDPR, on July 7, 2022 it was transmitted through the IMI system this draft decision and the authorities concerned were informed that they had four weeks from that time to raise pertinent objections and motivated. Within the term for this purpose, the control authorities concerned shall not presented pertinent and reasoned objections in this regard, for which reason it is considered that all authorities agree with said draft decision and are linked by it, in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of article 60 of the GDPR.

This draft decision was notified to GUUDJOB in accordance with the established rules in Law 39/2015, of October 1, of the Common Administrative Procedure of the Public Administrations (LPACAP) on June 30, 2022, as stated in the acknowledgment of receipt in the file.

Competition and applicable regulations

Yo

In accordance with the provisions of article 58.2 and 60 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and the free circulation of these data (GDPR), and as established in articles 47, 48.1, 64.2 and 68.1 and 68.2 of Organic Law 3/2018, of December 5, Protection of Personal Data and guarantee of digital rights (hereinafter, LOPDGDD) is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure the Director of the Agency Spanish Data Protection.

Likewise, article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD determines that: "Procedures processed by the Spanish Data Protection Agency will be governed by the provisions in Regulation (EU) 2016/679, in this organic law, by the provisions regulations dictated in its development and, insofar as they do not contradict them, with character subsidiary, by the general rules on administrative procedures."

previous questions

In the present case, in accordance with the provisions of article 4.1 and 4.2 of the GDPR, the processing of personal data is recorded, since GUUDJOB carries out the collection of, among others, the following personal data of natural persons:

name and surname, telephone and email, among other treatments.

GUUDJOB carries out this activity in its capacity as data controller, given who is the one who determines the purposes and means of such activity, by virtue of article 4.7 of the GDPR. In addition, it is a cross-border processing, since GUUDJOB is established in Spain, although it provides services to other countries of the European Union.

The GDPR provides, in its article 56.1, for cases of cross-border processing, provided for in its article 4.23), in relation to the competence of the authority of main control, that, without prejudice to the provisions of article 55, the authority of control of the main establishment or of the only establishment of the person in charge or of the

The person in charge of the treatment will be competent to act as control authority for the cross-border processing carried out by said controller or commissioned in accordance with the procedure established in article 60. In the case examined, as has been exposed, GUUDJOB has its unique establishment in Spain, so the Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to act as the main supervisory authority.

For its part, article 17 of the GDPR recognizes the right of the interested parties to delete your personal data, while article 12 of the GDPR regulates the way in which this right must be exercised.

Right of erasure

C / Jorge Juan, 6

28001 – Madrid

Article 17 “Right to erasure (“the right to be forgotten”)” of the GDPR establishes that:

“1. The interested party shall have the right to obtain without undue delay from the person responsible for the treatment the deletion of personal data that concerns you, which will be obliged to delete without undue delay the personal data when any of the following circumstances:

a) the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which it was were collected or otherwise processed;

b) the interested party withdraws the consent on which the treatment is based in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) or Article 9(2)(a) and this is not based on another legal basis;

c) the interested party opposes the processing in accordance with article 21, paragraph 1, and does not other legitimate reasons for the treatment prevail, or the interested party opposes the treatment according to article 21, paragraph 2;

d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;

e) personal data must be deleted to comply with a legal obligation established in the law of the Union or of the Member States that applies to the responsible for the treatment;

f) the personal data have been obtained in relation to the offer of services of the information society referred to in article 8, paragraph 1.

In the present case, the complaining party had requested the deletion of their data personal, at least once, at the email address

'privacidad@guudjob.com' which is the address that appears in the privacy policy of GUUDJOB for the exercise of rights. The complaining party had attempted the deletion of your data on more occasions, the first on March 27, 2020.

Modalities of exercise of the rights of the interested party

IV.

Article 12 "Transparency of information, communication and modalities of exercise of the rights of the interested party" of the GDPR establishes that:

2. The person responsible for the treatment will facilitate the exercise of their rights by the interested party.

under articles 15 to 22. In the cases referred to in article 11, paragraph 2, the person in charge will not refuse to act at the request of the interested party in order to exercise your rights under articles 15 to 22, unless you can show that you do not

3. The person responsible for the treatment will provide the interested party with information regarding their proceedings on the basis of a request under articles 15 to 22, without undue delay and, in any case, within one month of receipt of the request. This period may be extended by another two months if necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of requests. The responsible will inform the interested party of any of said extensions within a period of one month from from receipt of the request, indicating the reasons for the delay. when the interested party submits the application by electronic means, the information will be provided by electronic means when possible, unless the interested party requests that it be

For its part, article 12 "General provisions on the exercise of rights" of the LOPDGDD provides that:

"(...)

4. Proof of compliance with the duty to respond to the request to exercise their rights formulated by the affected party will fall on the person responsible.

Following the request for information sent from this Agency, GUUDJOB has accredited that he had proceeded to cancel the data of the interested party, having provided the corresponding screenshots in which it can be seen that there is no data of the complaining party in the last twelve months.

However, the communication to the complaining party has occurred when there have been initiated the previous actions in this Agency, having provided the email email in which the complaining party is informed that their personal data will be had been deleted more than a year ago coinciding with his request, and that, after having received the notification from this Agency, they proceeded to inform them that had produced the deletion of their data, and that they regretted not having answered their request, adding that it occurred during the COVID era, and that for this reason it is not could answer.

Therefore, in accordance with the evidence available in this agreement initiation of disciplinary proceedings, and without prejudice to what results from the investigation, it is considered that the known facts could constitute a infringement, attributable to GUUDJOB, for violation of article 12 of the GDPR, in in relation to the provisions of article 17 of the GDPR.

SAW

For the purposes of deciding on the imposition of an administrative fine and its amount,

In accordance with the evidence available at the present time of agreement to start disciplinary proceedings, and without prejudice to what results from the instruction, it is considered that the balance of the circumstances contemplated in the Article 83.2 of the GDPR and 76.2 of the LOPDGDD, with respect to the offense committed by violating the provisions of article 12 of the GDPR, in relation to article 17, initially allows a penalty of €1,000 (one thousand euros) to be set.

imposition of measures

If the infringement is confirmed, it could be agreed to impose on the person responsible the adoption of adequate measures to adjust its performance to the regulations mentioned in this act, without prejudice in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned article 58.2 d) of the GDPR, according to which each control authority may "order the person responsible or processor that the processing operations comply with the provisions of this Regulation, where applicable, in a certain way and within a specified period...”. The imposition of this measure is compatible with
