

According to the current Saxon Corona Protection Ordinance, access to the school is prohibited unless a test proves that there is no infection with SARS-CoV-2.

In this regard, there are no concerns from a data protection point of view. The details can be found in the PDF file below.