

PRESS RELEASE

Berlin, October 6, 2022

House of Representatives elects new Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information

The Berlin House of Representatives today appointed Meike Kamp as the new Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (BlnBDI). The lawyer succeeds Maja Smoltczyk, whose term of office ended at the end of October 2021.

Volker Brozio, Acting Head of the BlnBDI: "I welcome the election of Meike Kamp to the new Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information. That means after a year determined who will succeed Maja Smoltczyk. I'm happy to welcome Meike Kamp to our to welcome the authorities and to hand over the official business to them in the near future."

Meike Kamp is a lawyer specializing in data protection, media and Freedom of Information. She worked at BlnBDI from 2010 to 2019, most recently as head of the Section I B Economics. Kamp had previously worked at the independent state center for data protection Schleswig-Holstein the department for data protection in the non-public area including telemedia and telecommunications conducted. Meike Kamp is responsible for the state of Bremen until she takes office as BlnBDI worked as a representative in the legal and internal affairs committee of the Bundesrat.

Berlin Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (BlnBDI)

Friedrichstr. 219, 10969 Berlin

Entrance: Puttkamerstr. 16-18

Telephone: 0151 188 52 333

Fax: 030 215 50 50

Responsible: Simon Rebiger

Office: Cristina Vecchi

Email: presse@datenschutz-berlin.de

