

THE STATE COMMISSIONER FOR DATA PROTECTION AND FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

Press Office of the State Commissioner for the Data protection and freedom of information

dr Stefan Brink

Lautenschlagerstrasse 20

70173 Stuttgart

www.lfdi-bw.de

Cagdas Karakurt, tel: 0711-615541-23

Email: pressestelle@lfdi.bwl.de

May 27, 2022

PRESS RELEASE

Municipal data protection competition 2022

Cities, municipalities, municipal associations and district offices can Submit suggestions by July 17 and help shape data protection.

The best ideas are awarded.

Municipalities and district offices are in constant contact with citizens

Contact. be there

many personal information

recorded, entered, merged and sent to other places transmitted. This means that almost every work step must also include the data protection should be considered.

Simple explanations and explanations help employees and citizens

the necessary data protection rules

better

can understand. Sometimes a new method helps

Implementation of data protection - i.e. the protection of personal data data – to facilitate.

Looking for creative and innovative proposals, the theme

The

State representative for data protection and

Freedom of Information

Baden-Württemberg therefore launched a competition for the first time.

Municipal bodies are cordially invited to take part in the competition participate.

- 2 -

Ideas are needed, such as data protection in municipal affairs conveyed even better and explained in an understandable way in the service of the citizenry can be - for example, which data municipal authorities for what exactly allowed to use. Also, for example, proposals can be submitted as with employees, the implementation of data protection can be facilitated. As competition entries, for example

Educational videos, information signs, stickers for the work PC or a innovative data-saving technology or procedure that has been used so far can replace extensive data processing.

Who can enter the competition?

Municipal authorities in Baden-Württemberg can take part, i.e. everyone Cities, municipalities, municipal associations and district offices. The ideas can be submitted to the state representative by July 17, 2022 will. An expert jury will select the best submissions and award. The three best submissions will be awarded. The award is public. In addition, the state representative the competition and, if desired, the participants at his homepage and in the forthcoming activity report. The communal You are welcome to put your participation and performance on yours promote websites. Further conditions of participation and information about the competition are available the home page of State representative: <https://www.baden-wuerttemberg.datenschutz.de/municipal-data-protection-competition-2022/>