

Decision of the conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments

04.11.2021

privacy

press release

On October 19, 2021, the conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments passed the resolution: processing of the "vaccination status" data of employees by the employer.

return

Associated files

Resolution of the conference of independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments of

October 19, 2021

Processing of the "vaccination status" data of employees by the employer

260KB