

Are you familiar with the obligations prescribed by the General Data Protection Regulation? Not sure who is the manager and who is the processor? What is the role of the data protection officer and do you need a privacy policy? Do you know what measures you must take for an adequate level of security of personal data processing? If you are not sure of the answers to these and many other GDPR questions, then the "GDPR - basic module" workshop is just for you.

The Agency for the Protection of Personal Data invites all interested managers and processors and data protection officers from the public and private sectors to the free online workshop "GDPR - basic module", which will be held on December 19, 2022, starting at 10:00 a.m. .

The workshop is intended for everyone who wants to learn the basics of the General Data Protection Regulation, to be informed about their obligations, as well as their rights. Also, the workshop is an opportunity to ask specific questions to the Agency's experts and resolve your doubts.

*registration for the workshop is not required, but we recommend that you join ten minutes early via the link below to ensure your place in the workshop (the number of participants is limited to 100).
