

The conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments (DSK) made a statement on research data and Facebook fan pages at its 103rd meeting.

Full press release (PDF file on DSK website)

Further documents and the brief report of the TaskForce fan pages can also be found on the data protection conference website.