S.A., President of the Personal Data Protection Office

refuses to accept the request.

JUSTIFICATION

The President of the Personal Data Protection Office (formerly the Inspector General for Personal Data Protection) received a complaint from Mr. A. G. [...] (hereinafter referred to as: the Complainant) about the processing of his personal data by A. S.A. (hereinafter referred to as: the Bank), including their sharing and processing of the above. personal data by B. S.A. (hereinafter referred to as B.). The complainant requested that his personal data provided to B. by the Bank be deleted.

In the course of the administrative procedure conducted in this case, the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (hereinafter: "the President of the Personal Data Protection Office") determined the following.

1. The Bank processed the Complainant's personal data on the basis of an agreement of [...] December 2007 No. [...] for the maintenance of bank checking and savings accounts, an agreement for the use of payment cards and an agreement for the use of a credit card. The complainant was delayed in paying the obligation under the loan agreement, which resulted in the Bank terminating the above-mentioned the contract.

2. After terminating the above-mentioned of the agreement, the Bank processed the complainant's personal data pursuant to art. 23 section 1 point 5 in connection with joke. 23 sec. 4 point 2 for the purpose of pursuing claims arising in connection with the performance of banking activities. After May 25, 2018, the basis for processing was Art. 6 (1) (a) f of the Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU) 2016/679.

3. The Bank explained that it had transferred the complainant's personal data to B. pursuant to Art. 105 paragraph. 4 of the Banking Act in connection with the obligation resulting from the loan agreement concluded on [...] December 2007. The Complainant's data were processed for a period of 5 years after the payment of the amount due pursuant to Article 105a para. 3 of the Banking Law for the purpose of creditworthiness assessment and credit risk analysis by [...] April 2018.

4. At present, the Bank and B. do not process the Complainant's personal data under the agreement of [...] December 2007 No. [...] for the purposes of creditworthiness assessment and credit risk analysis. According to B. 105a paragraph. 4 and 5 in connection with joke. 105 (4) of the Banking Law (for reporting purposes).

In this factual state, the President of the Personal Data Protection Office considered the following.

On May 25, 2018, the provisions of the Act of May 10, 2018 on the Protection of Personal Data (Journal of Laws of 2018, item 1000, as amended), hereinafter referred to as "u.o.d.o.", entered into force.

Pursuant to Art. 160 sec. 1-3 of the Act, proceedings conducted by the Inspector General for Personal Data Protection, initiated and not completed before the date of entry into force of this Act, are conducted by the President of the Personal Data Protection Office on the basis of the Act of August 29, 1997 on the Protection of Personal Data (Journal U. of 2016, item 922, as amended), in accordance with the principles set out in the Act of June 14, 1960 Code of Administrative Procedure (Journal of Laws of 2018, item 2096, as amended), hereinafter referred to as "kpa ". At the same time, the activities performed in the proceedings initiated and not completed before the effective date of the provisions of the Act on

From May 25, 2018, also Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of April 27, 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95 / 46 / WE (Journal of Laws UE L 119 of 04.05.2016, p. 1 as amended), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation 2016/679".

Taking into account the above, it should be stated that the present proceedings, initiated and not completed before May 25, 2018, are conducted on the basis of the Act of August 29, 1997 on the protection of personal data (with regard to the provisions governing the administrative procedure) and on the basis of the Regulation 2016/679 (in the scope determining the legality of the processing of personal data). The method of conducting proceedings in cases initiated and not completed before the date of entry into force of new regulations on the protection of personal data, resulting from the provisions of law, correlates with the well-established position of the doctrine, according to which "a public administration body assesses the facts of the case according to the moment of issuing the administrative decision. This rule also applies to the assessment of the legal status of the case, which means that the public administration authority issues an administrative decision on the basis of the provisions of law in force at the time of its issuance "(Commentary to the Act of June 14, 1960, Code of Administrative Procedure (Journal of Laws No. 00.98.1071) M. Jaśkowska, A. Wróbel, Lex., EI / 2012).

In the judgment of May 7, 2008 in the case file ref. Act I OSK 761/07 The Supreme Administrative Court stated that "when examining [...] the legality of the processing of personal data, GIODO is obliged to determine whether the data of a specific entity are processed as at the date of issuing the decision in the case and whether it is done in a lawful manner" .

In the light of the provisions of the GDPR, the processing of personal data is authorized when any of the conditions listed in art. 6 sec. 1 of Regulation 2016/679 (previously Article 23 (1) of the Act on These conditions apply to all forms of data processing listed in art. 4 point 2 of Regulation 2016/679, including in particular to make them available. These conditions are also equal to each other, which means that for the legality of the data processing process, it is sufficient to meet one of them.

The legal act containing detailed regulations regarding the processing of personal data of bank customers is primarily the Banking Law. The assessment of the legality of the processing of the Complainant's personal data by the Bank and also by B. must therefore be carried out in conjunction with the provisions of the Banking Law.

Referring to the legality of the processing of the Complainant's personal data by the Bank and B., it should be noted that the Complainant's personal data was transferred to B. in accordance with art. 105 paragraph. 4 of the Act of August 29, 1997 Banking Law (Journal of Laws 2018, item 2187 as amended). In the light of this provision, "banks may, together with banking chambers of commerce, establish institutions authorized to collect, process and make available to: banks information constituting banking secrecy to the extent that this information is needed in connection with the performance of banking activities and in connection with the application of internal methods and other methods and models referred to in Part Three of Regulation No 575/2013, to other institutions statutorily authorized to provide loans with information constituting banking secrecy to the extent that such information is necessary in connection with granting loans, cash loans, bank guarantees and sureties (point 2), to credit institutions of information constituting banking secrecy to the extent necessary to assess the consumer's creditworthiness, as referred to in Art. 9 of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit (point 3), loan institutions and entities referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit on the basis of reciprocity, information constituting respectively banking secrets and information provided by loan institutions and entities referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit, to the extent necessary to assess the consumer's creditworthiness, as referred to in art. 9 of this Act and the credit risk analysis (point 4) ". However, according to Art. 105a paragraph. 3 of the Banking Law - "banks, institutions and entities referred to in sec. 1, may process information constituting banking secrecy and information provided by loan institutions and entities referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit, concerning natural persons after the expiry of the obligation resulting from the contract concluded with a bank, other institution authorized by law to grant loans, a loan institution or an entity referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit, without the consent of the person to whom the information relates, when the person has not fulfilled the obligation or has been in delay of more than 60 days in fulfilling the service under the contract concluded with the bank, another institution legally authorized to provide loans, a loan institution or an entity referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit, and after these circumstances at least 30 days have elapsed since the person was informed by the bank, other institution authorized by law to grant loans, a loan institution or an entity referred to in art. 59d of the Act of 12 May 2011 on consumer credit, on the intention to process this information without its consent ". The Bank's explanations show that the Complainant committed long delays in repayment and that all the conditions of Art. 105a section 3 of the Banking Law Act. The occurrence of these circumstances meant that his personal data was processed for a period of 5 years after the payment of arrears, and this deadline expired on [...] April 2018.

The legal basis for the processing of the complainant's personal data in this respect is art. 6 (1) (a) f of Regulation 2016/679 (previously art. 23 section 1 point 5 of the Act on

With regard to the request to delete his personal data in the scope of the contract of [...] December 2007, it should be noted that B. is entitled to process the complainant's personal data pursuant to Art. 6 (1) (a) c of Regulation 2016/679, i.e. processing is necessary to fulfill the legal obligation incumbent on the administrator. This obligation results from Art. 105a paragraph. 4 and 5 of the Banking Law. The Complainant's personal data constituting banking secrecy will therefore be processed for a period of 12 years after the expiry of the obligation resulting from the contract concluded with the bank for the purposes of using internal methods and other methods and models referred to in part three of Regulation No 575/2013, i.e. until [...] April 2025. On the basis of the above-mentioned legal provisions, it should be concluded that there is no reason for the President of the Personal Data Protection Office to issue a decision ordering the restoration of the lawful state, therefore it is reasonable to issue a decision refusing to accept the application.

Moreover, the President of the Personal Data Protection Office cannot refer to the Complainant's request for the return of unduly collected benefits by the Bank. Civil law cases fall within the competence of common courts.

In this factual and legal state, the President of the Personal Data Protection Office resolved as in the sentence.
