

press releases

Press release on preliminary legal certainty for data transfers to the UK

Press

e-mail

12/28/2020

The conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments (DSK) points out to companies, authorities and other institutions in Germany that the final provisions of the draft trade and cooperation agreement between the United Kingdom and the European Union provide for new transitional regulations for data transfers which prevents the serious legal uncertainties previously feared (Article 10A Interim provision for transmission of personal data to the United Kingdom, p. 406 ff.).

Full press release