RESOLUTION OF PUNISHMENT PROCEDURE

Of the procedure instructed by the Spanish Agency for Data Protection and based on to the following

BACKGROUND

FIRST: SUPERIOR POLICE HEADQUARTERS OF CATALONIA (hereinafter, the claimant) dated January 18, 2021 filed a claim with the Agency Spanish Data Protection.

The claim is directed against A.A.A. with NIF ***NIF.1 (hereinafter, the claimed one).

The reasons on which the claim is based are that the respondent requires its clients who provide their personal data to reserve an appointment for the processing of documentation from the National Police, without providing them with the information required in accordance with article 13 of the RGPD.

SECOND: In accordance with article 65.4 of Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, of Protection of Personal Data and guarantee of digital rights (in hereinafter LOPDGDD), with reference number E/00724/2021, transfer of said claim to the claimed party on February 25, 2021, so that he could proceed with his analysis and report to this Agency within a month, of the actions carried out carried out to adapt to the requirements set forth in the data protection regulations.

On March 24, 2021, the respondent responds to the aforementioned request claiming the following:

"People of Pakistani origin, friends and relatives of the owner of the business, had asked as a favor that they "get" an appointment to "put fingerprints", because they were desperate, and they had neither the means nor the time to do so, and since has a computer, internet connection and some free time, I was trying from time to time, for which friends and relatives voluntarily provided their name and NIE number, which was not affected by advertising of any kind (it was the appointment was obtained, the receipt was printed, and delivered to the person); by way of that the claimant did not withhold any data.”

In view of everything that has been done, by the Spanish Data Protection Agency

In this proceeding, the following are considered proven facts:

“d) order the person responsible or in charge of the treatment that the operations of treatment comply with the provisions of this Regulation, where appropriate,

in a specified manner and within a specified period;”

“i) impose an administrative fine under article 83, in addition to or instead of the measures mentioned in this section, according to the circumstances of each particular case;”

Article 83.5.b) of the RGPD establishes that:

“The infractions of the following dispositions will be sanctioned, in accordance with the paragraph 2, with administrative fines of a maximum of EUR 20,000,000 or, in the case of a company, an amount equivalent to a maximum of 4% of the global total annual turnover of the previous financial year, opting for the largest amount:

a) the rights of the interested parties pursuant to articles 12 to 22;”

In turn, article 74.a) of the LOPDGDD, under the heading "Infringements considered mild has:

“They are considered minor and the remaining infractions of a legal nature will prescribe after a year. merely formal of the articles mentioned in paragraphs 4 and 5 of article 83 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and, in particular, the following:

Failure to comply with the principle of transparency of information or the right of information of the affected party for not providing all the information required by the articles 13 and 14 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.”

In this case, this Agency has confirmed that the respondent requires his customers who provide their personal data to reserve an appointment for them processing of documentation from the National Police, without indicating any of the aspects required in article 13 of the RGPD, indicated in the legal basis III, that is, when collecting personal data, the data controller is say the claimed, must inform the owner of the same, of the aspects indicated in said precept as the identity and contact details of the person responsible for the treatment, the purposes of the treatment to which the personal data is destined and the basis legal treatment, etc.

Therefore, since the respondent does not comply with the information required in the aforementioned article 13 of the RGD, incurs an infringement of the RGD.

SAW

In order to determine the administrative fine to be imposed, the provisions of articles 83.1 and 83.2 of the RGD, precepts that indicate:

“Each control authority will guarantee that the imposition of administrative fines under this Article for infringements of this Regulation indicated in sections 4, 9 and 6 are in each individual case effective, proportionate and dissuasive.”
