

The Saxon Data Protection and Transparency Officer Dr. Juliane Hundert presented her data protection activity report for the past year in Dresden.

The focal points of data protection supervision, statistics, information on the interpretation of the General Data Protection Regulation, sanctions practice and data protection case law are summarized on more than 230 pages.

Read the full press release in the Media Service of the Free State of Saxony