"Privacy and an independent supervisory authority belong to a free constitutional state like one independent judiciary or an impartial administration"

Official handover to the Saxon data protection officer has the solemn

handover

On the occasion of

Saxon

Data Protection Officer Dr. Juliane Hundert on the outstanding social importance of data protection pointed out:

»Privacy is not something secondary or marginal. He is an indispensable part of a rule of law, oneself restrictive community. To recognize and acknowledge this took a few decades of learning, including some landmark judgements the Federal Constitutional Court and the European Court of Justice. If today with Andreas Schurig handing over the role to me the independent data protection supervisory authority in the Free State of Saxony appreciate, then this is done against this background: data protection and an independent supervisory authority belong to a liberal

Rule of law like an independent judiciary or an impartial Administration."

In front of representatives of the Saxon parliamentary groups

Parliament, the state government, the highest state authorities and the Data protection conference honored Dr. Juliane Hundert the achievements of her predecessor Andreas Schurig. He was a Saxon from 2004 to the end of 2021

Data Protection Officer. The Saxon state parliament had it in 2009 and 2015 re-elected with a large majority.

Andreas Schurig have all challenges, tasks or events mastered in his rational and moderate way. He still has that

The reputation of the authority increased, its efficiency significantly increased and the Data protection in Saxony has become an integral part of administrative and made economic culture. Thank you very much for that, said Dr.

Juliane Hundert.

After the election by the state parliament on December 21, 2021, she had that

Office of the Saxon data protection officer at the beginning of 2022 accepted. The date of the official ceremony was due to the Restrictions due to the corona pandemic postponed and now - up

Invitation from the state parliament – made up for in the Ständehaus in Dresden.

»Today more than ever, we are realizing that personal data is not only the oil of the modern economy, but also an important one raw material for public authority. Therefore the ongoing control activity of my authority, but also its ability to mobilize of the powers of people's self-privacy, so vital in our Time. As Saxon data protection officer, I advocate that data protection is an integral part of our rule of law remains. With this claim, I will advocate for a privacy-friendly

Use legislation to prevent it from becoming unjustified interference with people's personal rights," said Dr.

Juliane Hundred.

Finally went her speech on the draft of Transparency Act, which the Saxon state parliament is currently discussing still discusses: »The entry into force of the Transparency Act is now approaching within reach.

I as

Saxon data protection officers will also take on the function of the transparency officer can take over - as it is in the draft law is provided. So I can make the necessary change in the Saxon administration towards more citizen proximity and transparency help shape it.«

About the Saxon data protection officer

The Saxon data protection officer is the independent one for Saxony

Data protection supervisory authority according to Article 51 paragraph 1 of the data protection

General Regulation (GDPR). This arises with regard to non-public Bodies (e.g. companies and associations) from § 14 paragraph 2 of the Saxon Data Protection Implementation Act; with regard to public bodies (e.g.

B. authorities) from § 14 paragraph 1 of the same law.

Since 2022, Dr. Juliane Hundert holds the office and becomes her department supported by more than 30 employees in Dresden.

The Saxon data protection officer monitors compliance with the data protection regulations and handles complaints from citizens citizens. Other tasks include advising

Saxon responsible for data protection issues.

I would be very happy if
