

Can restaurant or event visits be made dependent on whether visitors can prove a corona vaccination or a surviving infection or can present a negative test?

The conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments (DSK) has dealt with this question and published a resolution.

Resolution of the DSK on health data processing by the private sector in the corona pandemic