

The Saxon Data Protection Officer Dr. Juliane Hundert started work in the office today.

»In the coming weeks I will deal with the individual areas of activity of my agency. I am looking forward to the new tasks and working with my employees. Together we will stand up for data protection in Saxony and stand up for the right to informational self-determination.«