RESOLUTION OF PUNISHMENT PROCEDURE

Of the procedure instructed by the Spanish Agency for Data Protection and based on to the following

BACKGROUND

FIRST: The Superior Police Headquarters of Catalonia, dated February 4, 2021, sent the Notification Act of an alleged violation of the regulations of data protection to the Spanish Data Protection Agency.

The following is indicated in the letter of remission of the Minutes, in relation to the matter of Data Protection:

“Organic Law 2/1986, of March 13, on Security Forces and Bodies, in its Article 11.1.a) requires the agents of the authority to "ensure compliance with the Laws and general provisions, executing the orders received from the Authorities.
des, within the scope of their respective competences”

Within the framework of the functions related to documentation of foreigners, as well as that for the issuance of the national identity document, and as it happens in di-various areas of public administration, it is necessary to request a appointment for the materialization of the different procedures, which is obtained free of charge through the website <https://sede.administracionespublicas.gob.es/>.

On this website you can get an appointment, anywhere in the national territory, for the issuance/renewal of documents, collection of identity cards from ex-foreigners (TIE), asylum applications, invitation letters, fingerprinting for the experience issuance of cards, certificates of registration of citizens of the European Union, as well as for another series of administrative procedures.

The fact of the suspension of administrative deadlines due to the declaration of the state of alarm throughout the national territory derived from the pandemic caused by Covid-19 added to the fact that, during the current year 2020, they have been responsible for renewal of their documents to foreign citizens who availed themselves of the process of regularization of their administrative situation that was implemented in the year 2015, has resulted in a situation of congestion in police services related to the materialization of different procedures and files in matters of immigration, which have overwhelmed the capacity of the immigration offices of the Police. National Society in the province of Barcelona which have had to be reinforced, in As far as personal and technical means are concerned, in order to respond to the strong commands experienced in such a short space of time.

In this context, the Unit against Immigration Networks and Falsehoods attached to the Provincial Immigration and Borders Brigade of Barcelona of the Superior Headquarters Police of Catalonia has detected, as a result of receiving multiple claims digital data (hereinafter, LOPDGDD). The request for information on the many statements were received, on March 29, 2021, as recorded in the Notice of Receipt issued by the Post Office, without any reply having been received. na.

THIRD: On 06/03/2021, the Director of the Spanish Protection Agency

Data agreed to admit the claim for processing.

FOURTH: On 06/17/2021, the Director of the Spanish Protection Agency of Data agreed to initiate a sanctioning procedure against the defendant, for the alleged violation of article 13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, of April 27, 2016, regarding the protection of natural persons in relation to regarding the processing of personal data and the free circulation of these data (hereinafter, RGPD), typified in article 83.5 of the RGPD.

FIFTH: There were two notification attempts of the agreement to initiate this sanctioning procedure through postal mail on 07/21/2021 and 07/26/2021, but they were "Returned to origin due to surplus (not withdrawn in the office)", as recorded in the postal notice.

Finally, the notification was made through an announcement published in the Bulletin

Official of the State on 08/09/2021 and a hearing period of TEN DAYS is granted

SKILLFUL to formulate the allegations and present the evidence that it considers convenient, in accordance with the provisions of articles 73 and 76 of the Law

39/2015, of October 1, of the Common Administrative Procedure of the Public Administrations (hereinafter, LPACAP).

SIXTH: The respondent did not make any objections to the agreement to initiate the procedure.

Article 64.2 f) of the LPACAP - provision of which the respondent was informed in the agreement to open the procedure- establishes that if no allegations are made within the term established on the content of the initiation agreement, when it contains a precise statement about the imputed responsibility, it may be considered a motion for a resolution.

In the present case, the agreement to initiate the disciplinary proceedings determined the facts in which the imputation was specified, the infraction of the RGPD attributed to the claimed and the sanction that could be imposed. Therefore, taking into account that

In this proceeding, the following are considered proven facts:

FACTS

FIRST: The respondent collects data from natural persons who come to its booth to request an appointment for administrative procedures, without providing the precise information to interested parties in accordance with current regulations on the protection of personal information.

SECOND: The Spanish Data Protection Agency has notified the respondent the agreement to initiate this sanctioning procedure, but this has not presented allegations or evidence that contradicts the facts denounced.

FOUNDATIONS OF LAW

I

By virtue of the powers that article 58.2 of the RGPD recognizes to each authority of control, and as established in arts. 47 and 48.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of The Spanish Agency for Data Protection is competent to resolve this process.

Article 63.2 of the LOPDGDD determines that: "The procedures processed by the Spanish Agency for Data Protection will be governed by the provisions of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679, in this organic law, by the provisions regulations issued in its development and, as long as they do not contradict them, with a subsidiary, by the general rules on administrative procedures.

II

Article 4 of the GDPR, under the heading "Definitions", provides that:

"For the purposes of this Regulation, the following shall be understood as:

1) "personal data": any information about an identified natural person or identifiable ("the interested party"); An identifiable natural person shall be deemed to be any person whose identity can be determined, directly or indirectly, in particular by an identifier, such as a name, an identification number, location, an online identifier or one or more elements of the identity physical, physiological, genetic, psychic, economic, cultural or social of said person;

2) "processing": any operation or set of operations carried out on personal data or sets of personal data, whether by procedures automated or not, such as the collection, registration, organization, structuring, conservation, adaptation or modification, extraction, consultation, use, communication by transmission, broadcast or any other form of enabling of access, collation or interconnection, limitation, suppression or destruction;"

Therefore, in accordance with these definitions, the collection of personal data personal on the occasion of the request for an appointment to carry out procedures administrative constitutes a treatment of data, for which the person in charge of the treatment must comply with the provisions of article 13 of the RGPD, providing the interested parties with all the information indicated in said precept.

In relation to this matter, it is observed that the Spanish Agency for the Protection of Data is available to citizens, the Guide for the fulfillment of duty to inform (<https://www.aepd.es/media/guias/guia-model-clausula-informativa.pdf>) and, in case of carrying out low-risk data processing, the free tool

Facilitates (<https://www.aepd.es/herramientas/facilita.html>).

III

Article 13 of the RGPD, a precept that determines the information that must be provided to the interested party at the time of collecting their data, indicates that:

"one. When personal data relating to him is obtained from an interested party, the responsible for the treatment, at the time these are obtained, will provide all the information indicated below:

a) the identity and contact details of the person in charge and, where appropriate, of their representative.

tant;

b) the contact details of the data protection delegate, if any;

- c) the purposes of the treatment to which the personal data is destined and the legal basis of the treatment;
- d) when the treatment is based on article 6, paragraph 1, letter f), the legitimate interests swindles of the person in charge or of a third party;
- e) the recipients or the categories of recipients of the personal data, in their case;
- f) where appropriate, the intention of the controller to transfer personal data to a third party country or international organization and the existence or absence of a decision to adequacy of the Commission, or, in the case of transfers indicated in the adequate or appropriate warranties and the means to obtain a copy of these or to the fact that they have been borrowed.

2. In addition to the information mentioned in section 1, the person responsible for the treatment will facilitate the interested party, at the moment in which the data is obtained personal, the following information necessary to guarantee data processing fair and transparent

- a) the period during which the personal data will be kept or, when it is not possible, the criteria used to determine this period;
- b) the existence of the right to request from the data controller access to the personal data relating to the interested party, and its rectification or deletion, or the limitation of its treatment, or to oppose the treatment, as well as the right to portability of the data;

c) when the treatment is based on article 6, paragraph 1, letter a), or article

9, paragraph 2, letter a), the existence of the right to withdraw consent in any time, without affecting the legality of the treatment based on the consent prior to its withdrawal;

d) the right to file a claim with a supervisory authority;

e) if the communication of personal data is a legal or contractual requirement, or a necessary requirement to sign a contract, and if the interested party is obliged to provide personal data and is informed of the possible consequences of not provide such data;

f) the existence of automated decisions, including profiling, to which referred to in article 22, sections 1 and 4, and, at least in such cases, information about applied logic, as well as the importance and consequences provisions of said treatment for the interested party.

3. When the data controller plans further data processing personal data for a purpose other than that for which they were collected, you will provide the interested party, prior to such further processing, information on that other purpose and any additional information relevant under paragraph 2.

4. The provisions of sections 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply when and in the

to the extent that the interested party already has the information.”

For its part, article 11 of the LOPDGDD, provides the following:

"one. When the personal data is obtained from the affected party, the person responsible for the treatment may comply with the duty of information established in article

13 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, providing the affected party with the basic information to referred to in the following section and indicating an electronic address or other medium that allows easy and immediate access to the rest of the information.

a) The identity of the data controller and his representative, if any.

b) The purpose of the treatment.

c) The possibility of exercising the rights established in articles 15 to 22 of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

If the data obtained from the affected party were to be processed for the preparation of profiles, the basic information will also include this circumstance. In this

In this case, the affected party must be informed of their right to oppose the adoption of automated individual decisions that produce legal effects on him or her significantly affect in a similar way, when this right concurs in accordance with the provisions of article 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.”

IV

By virtue of the provisions of article 58.2 of the RGPD, the Spanish Agency for Data Protection, as a control authority, has a set of corrective powers in the event of an infraction of the precepts of the GDPR.

Article 58.2 of the RGPD provides the following:

"two. Each supervisory authority will have all of the following corrective powers listed below:

to) (...)

b) send a warning to any person responsible or in charge of treatment when the treatment operations have violated the provisions of this Regulation;

c) (...)

d) order the person responsible or in charge of treatment that the operations of treatment comply with the provisions of this Regulation, where appropriate, in a certain way and within a specified period;

i) impose an administrative fine in accordance with article 83, in addition to or instead of the measures mentioned in this section, according to the circumstances of each case particular".

Article 83.5 b) of the RGPD establishes that:

"The infractions of the following dispositions will be sanctioned, in accordance with the section 2, with administrative fines of a maximum of EUR 20,000,000 or, in the case of a company, an amount equivalent to a maximum of 4% of the global total annual turnover of the previous financial year, opting for the largest amount:

b) the rights of the interested parties pursuant to articles 12 to 22;"

In turn, article 72.1 h) of the LOPDGDD, under the heading "Infringements considered very serious" provides:

"They are considered very serious and the infractions that suppose a substantial violation of the articles mentioned in that and, in particularly the following:

h) The omission of the duty to inform the affected party about the processing of their data personal in accordance with the provisions of articles 13 and 14 of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and 12 of this organic law.”

In this case, the respondent has not presented arguments or evidence that contradict the facts denounced within the period given for it.

This Agency has confirmed that the actions of the respondent are not in accordance with the data protection regulations, since it does not inform customers about the treatment of the personal data provided by them, as required in article 13 of the RGPD, indicated in the legal basis III.

Thus, in accordance with the facts exposed, we are faced with a infringement of the provisions of article 13 of the RGPD, by the claimed party.

SAW

In accordance with article 58.2 d), for the commission of this infraction it is appropriate address a warning when collecting personal data from customers and consider that the administrative fine that could be levied in accordance with the provisions of Article 83.5 b) of the RGPD would constitute a disproportionate burden for the claimed, since there is no record of the commission of any previous infringement in terms of Data Protection.

Likewise, in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned article 58.2.d) of the RGPD, in the resolution is required to the claimed, as responsible for the treatment, the adequacy of the information offered to users whose personal data is collect from them the requirements contemplated in article 13 of the RGPD, as well as such as the provision of means of proof accrediting compliance with the required

Therefore, in accordance with the applicable legislation, the Director of the Spanish Data Protection Agency RESOLVES:
