

At the meeting of the Working Group for Data Protection of the Council of the European Union, which was held on March 23, 2022. in Brussels, attended by Marko Trošelj, senior advisor in the Service for International Cooperation, EU and Legal Affairs. The meeting in question discussed international data transfers and trade agreements (Mapping of trade agreements and G20, G7 and World Trade Organization initiatives).

The data protection working group of the Council of the European Union deals with the implementation of legislation and policies on the protection of personal data in the area of the implementation of legislation.

The Personal Data Protection Agency, in cooperation with the Ministry of Justice, will continue to actively participate in the work of this working group.