

PRESS RELEASE

March 20, 2019

Discussion with Federal Minister of Justice Katarina Barley:

"Our digital life - no alternative?!"

#Doxxing #data theft #digital ethics - hashtags in the title of a net-political discussion

sion events are not exactly unusual in 2019. The connection

Keywording with hash marks for easier communication on social media Platforms just ten years old. The many challenges posed by the Digitization of all areas of life for politics, law and society manifest reflected in the most recent data scandals.

How secure are our modern forms of communication and our digital identity did? What does politics have to do to ensure the best possible personal development for everyone to guarantee people, including those who refuse to go digital? And how does an ethics for the age of artificial intelligence? The 26th will be about these questions.

March 2019 at the Media University (HdM) in Stuttgart from 5.45 p.m. in a Panel discussion with Federal Justice Minister Dr. Katarina Barley, the State Commissioner contributed to data protection and freedom of information in Baden-Württemberg Dr.

Stefan Brink, head of the Institute for Digital Ethics at the HdM Prof. Dr. Petra

Grimm and the media economics student Jonas Wagner. The moderation takes over Prof. Dr. Tobias O. Keber, Head of the Institute for Digital Ethics at the HdM.

The introduction is held by Prof. Dr. Oliver Zöllner, also head of the Institute for Digital Ethics.

The event takes place in cooperation with the association Friends and Sponsors of the HdM
