

media information

Saxon data protection officer

Your contact person

Andrew Schneider

extension

Telephone +49 351 85471 120

Fax +49 351 85471 109

sdb.presse@slt.sachsen.de*

07/13/2022

Saxon data protection officer will also

Transparency Officer

The state parliament passed the Saxon Transparency Act today.

From January 1, 2023, citizens have a right to Access to information from Saxon authorities. Then have to bodies subject to transparency requirements the required information upon request to release. This includes, for example, expert opinions, studies and reports or notices. In addition, the public administration will be obliged in future to Provide information proactively. These publications should by the end of 2026 at the latest on the so-called transparency platform.

Compliance with the Transparency Act is ensured by the Saxon monitored by data protection officers. She takes on her duties to the fullest Independence true, independent from instructions and only subject to the law.

dr Juliane Hundert: »The Transparency Act is an important step to strengthen civil rights and our democracy. Access government information is a prerequisite for active participation in our democratic society. For that I will be Employ transparency officers. Citizens can contact me in the future if they violate their transparency requirements view. I also represent parliament, government and administration at your side in an advisory capacity.«

The future transparency officer sees this as a priority informing the public. 'So that the law can have its effect unfold, it must also be known among citizens

be. This is certainly one of the most important things to do in the coming months

Tasks – not just for me, but for everyone to whom the transparent rule of law is a concern," says Dr. Juliane Hundred

New task not yet considered in the position plan

Page 1 of 2

Street address:

Saxon

Data Protection Officer

Devrientstrasse 5

01067 Dresden

<https://www.saechsdsb.de>

To reach with the

Tram line 4

(bus stop Am Zwingerteich)

* No access for encrypted electronic documents. Access for qualified electronic signatures

Documents only under the on www.lsf.sachsen.de/eSignatur.html

noted conditions.

As the future transparency officer, Dr. Juliane Hundert up their associated tasks. To hold this office within the meaning of

However, to be able to fill in the law, it is dependent on additional personnel support in their authority. "In the budget process for

Unfortunately, the Ministry of Finance has all three for the 2023/2024 double budget

Bodies rejected in the Transparency Act for the performance of duties are provided. I urgently appeal to the budget legislator to improve here. The legal task of citizens otherwise I can't support them, but also advise the administration follow," emphasizes Dr. Juliane Hundert concludes.

Interested parties can find information about the Transparency Act soon also on the website of the Saxon Data Protection Officer.

About the Saxon data protection officer

The Saxon data protection officer is the independent one for Saxony

Data protection supervisory authority according to Article 51 paragraph 1 of the data protection

General Regulation (GDPR). This arises with regard to non-public Bodies (e.g. companies and associations) from § 14 paragraph 2 of the Saxon Data Protection Implementation Act; with regard to public bodies (e.g.

B. authorities) from § 14 paragraph 1 of the same law.

Since 2022, Dr. Juliane Hundert holds the office and will work in her office supported by more than 30 employees in Dresden.

The Saxon data protection officer monitors compliance with the data protection regulations and handles complaints from citizens citizens. Other tasks include advising

Saxon responsible for data protection issues.

