By virtue of the powers that article 58.2 of the RGPD recognizes to each control authority, and according to the provisions of articles 47, 48.1, 64.2 and 68.1 of the LOPDGDD, the Director of the Spanish Data Protection Agency is competent to initiate and resolve this procedure.

II

In accordance with the evidence available in this moment of agreement to initiate the sanctioning procedure, and without prejudice to what result of the instruction, it is considered that the respondent has not procured to the Agency Spanish Data Protection the information that required.

With the indicated conduct of the defendant, the power of investigation that the Article 58.1 of the RGPD confers on the control authorities, in this case, the AEPD, has been hampered.

Therefore, the facts described in the “Facts” section are considered constituting an infraction, attributable to the defendant, for violation of article 58.1 of the RGPD, which provides that each control authority will have, among its investigative powers:

“a) order the person in charge and the person in charge of the treatment and, where appropriate, the representative of the person in charge or the person in charge, who facilitate any information required for the performance of its functions; b) carry out investigations in the form of data protection audits; c) carry out a review of the certifications issued under article 42, paragraph 7; d) notify the person in charge or the person in charge of the treatment of the alleged violations of this Regulation; e) obtain from the controller and the in charge of the treatment access to all personal data and to all the information necessary for the exercise of its functions; f) gain access to all premises of the controller and processor, including any equipment and means of data processing, in accordance with the Procedural law of the Union or of the Member States.”

III

In accordance with the evidence available in this moment of agreement to initiate the sanctioning procedure, and without prejudice to what result of the investigation, it is considered that the exposed facts could be constituting an infringement, attributable to the defendant.

This infringement is typified in article 83.5.e) of the RGPD, which considers as such: “failure to provide access in breach of article 58, section 1”.

In the same article it is established that this infraction can be sanctioned with a maximum fine of twenty million euros (€20,000,000) or, in the case of a company, of an amount equivalent to four percent (4%) as a maximum of the global total annual turnover of the previous financial year, opting for the of greater amount.

For the purposes of the limitation period for infringements, the infringement charged prescribes after three years, in accordance with article 72.1 of the LOPDGDD, which qualifies as very serious the following conduct:

“ñ) Not facilitating the access of the personnel of the data protection authority competent to personal data, information, premises, equipment and means of treatment that are required by the data protection authority to the exercise of its investigative powers.

o) The resistance or obstruction of the exercise of the inspection function by the competent data protection authority.”

IV

Based on the facts set forth, without prejudice to what results from the instruction of the procedure, it is considered that it corresponds to impute the claimed by the violation of article 58.1 of the RGD of the RGPD typified in article 83.5 e) of the RGPD. The The sanction that should be imposed is an administrative fine.

The fine imposed must be, in each individual case, effective, proportionate and dissuasive, in accordance with the provisions of article 83.1 of the RGPD.

Consequently, the sanction to be imposed must be graduated according to the criteria established in article 83.2 of the RGPD, and with the provisions of article 76 of the LOPDGDD, with respect to section k) of the aforementioned article 83.2 RGPD.

Finally, it is appropriate to graduate the sanction to be imposed according to the criteria established in article 83.2 of the RGPD, and with the provisions of article 76 of the LOPDGDD, with respect to section k) of the aforementioned article 83.2 RGPD.

In the initial evaluation it is appreciated that no mitigating, and the following facts have been considered as aggravating:

- Art. 83.2 b) RGPD: the intention or negligence in the infringement. Is about a company that is not newly created and should have procedures established for the fulfillment of the obligations that contemplates the data protection regulations, among them, to respond to the requirements of the supervisory authority.
- Art. 83.2 k) RGPD: any other aggravating or mitigating factor applicable to the circumstances of the case, such as the financial benefits obtained or the Losses avoided, directly or indirectly, through the infringement. The claim refers to the particular case of a person, but the data processing to which it refers, may potentially affect a very high number of clients of the responsible entity or users of the service provided by the responsible entity.
