

12.04.2022

EDPB plenary – April 2022

During the Plenary of the European Committee for Data Protection, held online on April 6, 2022, a Declaration of this body was adopted regarding the announcement of the agreement in principle between the European Commission and the USA regarding the conclusion of the new Trans-Atlantic Agreement on Data Protection.

Also, on the occasion of the same meeting, a Letter to the European Commission was adopted, regarding the need to ensure the independence of the national data protection authority in Belgium, in relation to certain legislative changes expected internally.

More information is available at:

<https://edpb.europa.eu/news>

Legal and Communication Department

ANSPDCP