The CNPD has already commented in its Deliberation no. 61/2004, of 19 April 1 on the principles guidelines for correct compliance with the Data Protection Law, in terms of video surveillance, as well as the general conditions applicable to the processing of personal data for the purpose of protecting people and property. They derive from these principles, as well as from the labor law and jurisprudence, the following limits to treatment:

- Sound collection is not allowed;
- The collection of images must be confined to the property of the person in charge, and cannot cover images of public roads or neighboring properties;
- In the case of ATM payment terminals, the cameras cannot be directed so as to capture the typing of codes;
- Cameras cannot regularly focus on workers during their work activity, nor can the images be used to control the activity of workers, either to assess productivity or for the purposes of disciplinary accountability (cf. Articles 20 and 21 of the Labor Code);
- Only the collection of images in the declared places is covered by this authorization, and under no circumstances can images of access or interior of sanitary facilities, access or interior of changing rooms, waiting areas, review/approach rooms, areas rest areas and other areas for workers.

The treatment under analysis, with the aforementioned limitations, is adequate, relevant and not excessive in view of the stated purpose (cf. subparagraph b) of paragraph 1 of article 5 of Law 67/98, of 26 October, as amended
