

Who does what with my data?

New guidance on the right to information according to the General Data Protection Regulation

Press Release – Page 1/2

Munich, December 18, 2019

“Who does what with my data?” – Bavarians ask themselves this question

Fortunately, citizens are becoming more and more frequent. Answer gets who asks: Art. 15 General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) gives up a right

Information – also to Bavarian public authorities.

The Bavarian State Commissioner for Data Protection has to Art. 15

DSGVO already many inquiries from citizens, but also answered by authorities. He now has his consulting practice in a comprehensive guide "The right to information according to the data General Protection Regulation". The paper relates about that to numerous issues discussed in case law and literature

Position.

Prof. Dr. Thomas Petri: “The right to information according to Art. 15 GDPR plays a key role in the rights of those affected. First with information, the lawfulness of processing of the own realistically assess personal data. The information also creates a prerequisite for the use of other data subjects rights, in particular to rectification and erasure. I hope the new guide helps Bavarian public authorities to to process future requests according to Art. 15 DSGVO quickly and legally ten.”

Your personal rights - our mission

The Bavarian State Commissioner for Data Protection informed

The orientation guide "The right to information according to the data protection

Basic Ordinance" is on the homepage of the Bavarian State commissioned for data protection (<https://www.datenschutz-bayern.de>) in the Section "Data Protection Reform 2018" available for free download.

Prof. Dr. Thomas Petri

The Bavarian State Commissioner for Data Protection checks the Bavarian public public bodies compliance with data protection regulations. It's from Bavarian Elected state parliament, independent and not bound by instructions from anyone.