

The conference of the independent data protection supervisory authorities of the federal and state governments (DSK) has decided on requirements for research with health data.

In addition, the DSK dealt with the »Microsoft online services« at its 104th conference.