

Recently, the Saxon Data Protection Officer Dr. Juliane Hundert as a guest in the podcast of data protection practice.

The focus was on questions relating to employee data protection, including the correct handling of health data and sick leave, data protection-compliant personnel files, monitoring of employees, the use of messengers and employee photos in corporate communication and much more.

To listen to