New content can be obtained via an RSS feed. Dieter Kugelman. "In order to take account of the uniform application envisaged by the basic regulation and to give those responsible certainty of action, it is essential to communicate the positions of the German supervisory authorities and the decisions of the European Data Protection Board. The homepage of the data protection conference complements the existing information offers of the data protection supervisory authorities and creates a central access to data protection-relevant information. "Further information: The data protection conference consists of the independent data protection authorities of the federal and state governments. It has the task of safeguarding and protecting fundamental data protection rights, achieving uniform application of European and national data protection law and working together to promote its further development " to: vpo-presse-list-request@lists.datenschutz.de.
